

I believe the FCC is hurting the Deaf/Hard of Hearing communtiy by reducing the amount paid for Video Relay Services. Also, I believe the FCC should strictly enforce that VRS is not allowed to just "replace" an interpreter which would normally be required under the ADA for example at a doctor's office or employment meeting by "making it a telephone call".